

The new political order began on July 16, 1945, when the United States exploded the first atomic bomb. After demonstrating their terrifying new weapon, the US created a closed nuclear club comprised of the winners of World War II and China, who agreed to keep the technology to themselves, thus dividing the world into three categories: nations with legal nukes, nations with illegal nukes, and law-abiding, non-nuclear nations. Members of the nuclear club were not to proliferate nuclear technology, but the French, Germans, and Americans have broken that promise repeatedly by building the Dimona reactor and selling delivery technology, including submarines, to the West's greatest ally in the East. As yearning for The Last War stirs again in the hearts of fundamentalist Christian believers, has the US government assumed the role of piously promoting a worldwide holocaust while claiming to be the agent of worldwide security?
